

Copies Available

Contact us via email at heritage@bernepl.com or call 260-589-2809 if interested in a copy.

The Hirschy Genealogy by David L. Habegger $26.75

- This book records the descendants of Philip Hirschy (1787-1831) and Julianna Frey (1795-1839). The records used in this book were collected as long ago as 1892 when Noah Calvin Hirschy began writing down his family history. The records, in their current form, were compiled by David L. Habegger.

Images of America: A Swiss Community in Adams County by Naomi (Eugene) Lehman $10.70

- This book focuses on the culture of Berne, Indiana and Bern, Switzerland. It shows the history of Berne, Indiana as well as the struggle, hard work and pride of the Swiss immigrants as they settled Berne.

MRE Cemetery, 1892 to 2023 by R.J. Reynolds $10.70

- This collection records the MRE cemetery records going back to April 1892 through 2018. They are organized by the deceased's last name.

The Swiss of Adams and Wells Counties, Indiana, 1838-1862 by David L. Habegger & Karen C. Adams $21.40

- This book contains records of those Swiss and Mennonite persons living in Adams and Wells Counties, Indiana, during the period from 1838-1862.

Light & Hope: The story of Rev. John A. & Katharina Sprunger and their heritage by Max Haines $26.75

- This book covers the personal history of John & Katherine and explains their mission, as they saw it, of establishing an orphanage in Berne, IN and the trials and tribulations they endured.

The History, Ancestry and Descendants of Jacob J. Eicher 1873 - 1959 and Elizabeth P. Schwartz 1873 - 1934 written and compiled by Mrs. Amos A. (Gyneth M.) Coblentz $21.40

City of Berne DVD Courtesy of Greg Yoder free

- Digitized Super 8 movie film of Berne in 1937, 1941, 1952, 1961 and 1971. Includes film of the centennial, Berne Bears basketball game, Homecoming and street scenes from Berne in the early years.